

Milieu Travels

EXPLORE THE WORLD IN COMFORT

Bhutan Itinerary

07 Nights 08 Days Ex: Paro

Day 1: Arrival Paro – Thimphu

On arrival at Paro International Airport (PBH), our driver will meet and greet you at the Airport. Meet your driver and drive straight to the town of Thimphu. Upon arrival check into the hotel. In the evening you can go to see Tashichoe Dzong which is a fortress. Overnight stay at hotel in Thimphu.

Day 2: Thimphu

After breakfast, you can go sightseeing in the city, such as the King's Memorial Chorten, a stupa, Buddha Point, a 169-foot statue, Sangaygang, Changangkha, and so on. In the evening, visit a local market, the most famous of which is the clock tower market. Thimphu is where you will spend the night.

Day 3: Thimphu – Punakha

Drive to Punakha Valley in the morning. On the way, stop by Hongtsho Village, Lampari Botanical Park, and the lake. Various bird species and Red Pandas (depending on your luck) can be seen here. You will also visit the Chmi Lhakhang Temple and local villages in order to enjoy and experience Bhutan. Check into the hotel upon arrival and spend the night in Punakha.

Day 4: Punakha – Bumthang

Drive to Bumthang after breakfast. On the way, stop in Wangdi and Trongsa. Visit Phobjikha, which has the Gangtey Gonpa (Temple), the seat of Nyingmapa Buddhism, one of Bhutan's religious sects.

Drive to Trongsa after visiting Phubjikha. We drive uphill to Pela La Pass, passing through the Black Mountains that separate western and central Bhutan. On the way, you'll see rhododendron, magnolias, and yaks grazing, and on clear days, you'll see Mt. Jumolhari, which stands still to the west at an elevation of 23,685 feet. If you have time, you should go to Trongsa Dzong and Ta Dzong (Ta means watch tower in Dzongkha). Ta Dzong was built in 1652 and is now a museum displaying Buddhist art and history.

Milieu Travels

EXPLORE THE WORLD IN COMFORT

Day 5: Bumthang

Bumthang is a lovely valley. This location is significant because of religious relics left by the well-known Guru Rinpoche and his reincarnation.

After breakfast, visit the Jakar Dzong, the Kurjey Lhakhang, and the Wngdicholing Palace, which is the residence of the Bhutanese king. After dinner, take a stroll through the local market to sample the famous Bumthang cheese and honey. Stay the night in Bumthang.

Day 6: Bumthang – Paro

Check out of the hotel in the morning and drive to Paro. Check into the hotel upon arrival. Stay in Paro for the night.

Day 7: Paro – Tiger’s Nest Hike – Paro

Morning post breakfast get geared up to visit the most well-known Tiger’s Nest and nearby referred to as it Taktshang. It is believed that Buddhist saint Guru Rinpoche had sat on a tigress and flew to attain this place for meditation. The most holy and non-secular location in Bhutan. It will take almost 2.30 Hrs to attain to the monastery by hike/stroll. From this factor you can revel in the view with a purpose to be life time experience. If you wish and are livelier than you could stroll around forty-five extra minutes to reach as much as the hills to peer the nearest view of this stunning monastery. Later on, go back again in the identical manner. Evening unfastened in local market at Paro. Overnight live at inn.

Day 8: Paro - Departure

After breakfast check out from the hotel. Drive directly to Paro International Airport. Upon reaching transfer at departure terminal, board on to your flight with sweet memories of tour.

Tour Ends.

